2. Print tags

What is a tag?

Each item you sell must have a tag attached

IMPORTANT Cardstock Guidelines

All tags must be printed on cardstock paper.

- * Regular paper will tear off and get lost

If you want to donate your unsold items, use WHITE cardstock.

If you want to pick up unsold items, use PASTEL or NEON colored cardstock.

- * Dark colored cardstock is difficult for our scanners to read

- * Red cardstock is very difficult for our scanners to read

- * During the sorting process at the end of the sale, it is difficult for our volunteers to distinguish items tagged in grey, ivory, off-white, light yellow, etc. from white. If you're not planning on donating unsold items, print your tags on a color other than white, off-white, ivory, light-yellow, etc.!

Do not use: "" "" "" "" |||||

Check your sort number (if you want to pick up your unsold items)

Your Sort Number is on the bottom right corner of your tag.

Your Sort Number is used to place your unsold items where you can find them for easy pick-up after the Sale.

This number may change every sale depending on when you register as a seller.

* If you want to keep your sort number, sign up as soon as registration opens!

If your sort number has changed and you want to use old tags, you must print new tags OR print stickers to cover up your old sort number. To print resort stickers, buy Avery 1567 labels. Click on print resort stickers from your consignor homepage

Helpful items to have

Zip ties (also called 'cable ties')

Quart & gallon size plastic bags

Clear Packing tape

Metal adult hangers

Safety Pins

How to prepare clothes for sale

Hang each individual clothing item on METAL ADULT HANGERS ONLY

* Plastic hangers break and items end up on the floor

* Some dry cleaners may offer hangers for sale. You can also buy hangers in bulk on sites like Amazon.

* You may find hangers for sale on our Tagging Facebook page from other members who have extras.

Face hanger opening to the left

Only sell items as a set if they came that way originally

* Check to ensure they are the same size and same brand

* When selling sets, hang up each item individually and then ziptie the hangers together

Do not hang multiple items on one hanger or safety pin items together on one hanger

* Buyers want to be able to see your items

* Safety pinning clothing items together will cause holes in your items and will not sell

Use zip ties or safety pins to secure your items to the hanger if needed

* Be sure to put the pins through a thick seam or belt loop so it does not make a hole. Your items will not sell with holes!

How to prepare non-clothing items for sale

Most non-clothing items are placed on tables to sell

Do not unbox new items. Print out a picture of the item and tape it to the box.

Use Ziploc bags to group small items together or to keep delicate items clean

* Tape your bags closed with clear packing tape

* Take a picture of the item and tape that to the bag so sellers can see its condition

Use clear saran wrap to keep large rugs or blankets rolled up or to secure boxes

Toys/Electronics/Art Supplies: tables only

Use zip ties or packing tape to keep large pieces together

Use Ziploc bags or similar clear bags to group small items together

* Tape your bags closed with clear packing tape

If your item is disassembled, take a picture of the item and tape it on to the item so that the seller can see its condition

Linens: most items are placed on tables

{PICTURE OF LINEN ROOM}

Racks are available in the linen room to hang large blankets, towels and curtains

Burp cloths, cloth diapers, and baby blankets should be placed in the linen room

Shoes: racks are available

{PICTURE OF SHOE RACK}

Zip tie paired shoes together to hang or put in Ziploc bags to set on the floor

* Tape your bags closed with clear packing tape

Please remember no more than 5 shoes per sale!

Expensive Items:

As an option for expensive small items, we offer a more secure table

* breast pumps, electronics, high dollar toys, etc.

It is a great idea to leave a note (on 8.5 x 11 card stock) in the item's regular section that tells buyers that you have this item located in the stroller section for security. You may want to add a photo of your item to this note as well.

4. Price items

We recommend pricing all items at 1/4 – 1/3 of the original retail price. This varies according to the brand of your items and the condition they are in.

If you're not sure of the original price, think "What would I be excited to buy this item at?" or "What would be a good deal for this item?"

Generally, items should never be priced over 1/3 the original price unless they are new, never used, in the original packaging or with tags.

KX has no price limits or price requirements, but these are guidelines to help your items sell and to keep our buyers excited to come shop with us

Each item you sell must have a tag attached
Only official Kids Exchange tags can be used
NO handwritten tags

Helpful items to have

Ink pen
Hole punch
Zip ties
Clear packing tape
Painters tape

How to tag clothes

Write in the numerical size in the top right corner of tag

- * Our racks are organized by number size, not S, M, L
- * Check the manufacturers website for an exact size conversion chart
- * In general, XS = 5/6, S = 7/8, M = 10/12, L = 12/14, & XL means 14/16

Write a brief description of your item on bottom center of tag

- * Volunteers will use this information to reunite your tag with your item in case they get separated
- * This is also a section where you can write information to help sell your item such as : New, Organic, All pieces present, pet-free home, etc

Hole punch your tag

- * Feel free to use hole punch reinforcements on high priced items. You may also reinforce with clear packing tape around the hole punch

Zip tie your tag to the item

- * We recommend going through a buttonhole, a clothing tag, or a sleeve
- * You may have to get creative to attach your tag to your item!
- * Tag MUST be visible from the front torso of the item
- * Use safety pins ONLY if there is no place to zip tie (not recommended)

Tagging Guns are not recommended

- * Tagging guns are notorious for causing holes in items
- * Only go through a thick seam or the original tag

How to tag books

No size required

Write a brief description of your item on bottom center of tag

- * Volunteers will use this information to reunite your tag with your item in case they get separated

* This is also a section where you can write information to help sell your item such as : New, Organic, All pieces present, pet-free home, etc

Attach tags to book cover with tape

* blue painters tape is preferred because it does not tear book covers

How to tag large items

Use clear packing tape or ziptie your tag to your item

Use multiple tags in various places on your item to ensure the buyer can find your tag

Generally large items should be displayed set up, not folded or broken down, so buyers can inspect the condition of the item

* secure small pieces in Ziploc bags and tape or ziptie to your item

Do not unbox new items. Print out a picture of the item and tape it to the box with your tag

How to tag all other items

If size does not apply, leave top right corner blank.

Write a brief description of your item on bottom center of tag

* Volunteers will use this information to reunite your tag with your item in case they get separated

* This is also a section where you can write information to help sell your item such as: New, Organic, All pieces present, pet-free home, etc

Use zip ties whenever possible to attach your tag to your item

Use clear packing tape to attach your tag to your item

If your items are in a plastic bag, please tape your tag to the outside of the bag.

* Please do not put your tag inside plastic bags as they are hard for buyers to find and difficult for our scanners to read

Do not unbox new items. Print out a picture of the item and tape it to the box with your tag

Can I reuse my old tags?

Yes. The date on the tag does not really matter. The only thing you need to check between sales is that your sort number stays the same. If your sort number has changed and you want to pick up your unsold items, you will need to print stickers to place over your old number or reprint your tags. Please do NOT handwrite your new sort number as it is a way items could be stolen at the sale and hard for volunteers to read.
